The U.P. Government Servant's Conduct Rules, 1956

Published vide Notification No. 2367/2-B-1-111-54, dated 21st July, 1956

[As amended by Notification No. 13/V/98, dated 17th October, 1998]

In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to Article 309 of the Constitution of India, the Governor of Uttar Pradesh makes the following rules to regulate the conduct of Government servants employed in connection with the affairs of the State of Uttar Pradesh.

1. Short title.

- These rules may be called the Uttar Pradesh Government Servant's Conduct Rules, 1956.

2. Definitions.

- In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,-

(a) "Government" means the Government of Uttar Pradesh;

(b) "Government servant" means a person appointed to public services and posts in connection with the affairs of the State of Uttar Pradesh.

Explanation. - A Government servant whose services are placed at the disposal of a company, a corporation, an organisation, a local authority, the Central Government or the Government of another State by the U.P. Government, shall, for the purposes of these rules, be deemed to be a Government servant notwithstanding that his salary is drawn from a source other than the Consolidated Fund of Uttar Pradesh.

(c) ["member of the family", in relation to a Government servant, includes: [Substituted by Notification No. 9/7/78-Karmik-1, dated 20-11-1980, published in U.P. Gazette, Part I-ka, dated 23-3-1981.]

(i) the wife, son, step-son, unmarried daughter, or unmarried step-daughter of such Government servant, whether residing with him or not, and in relation to a Government servant, who is a woman, the husband, son, step-sons, unmarried daughter or unmarried step-daughters dependent on her, and residing with her or not, and

(ii) any other person related, whether by blood or by marriage, to the Government servant or to such Government servant's wife or her husband, and wholly dependent on such Government servant, but does not include a wife or husband legally separated from the Government servant or a son, step-son, unmarried daughter or unmarried step-daughter, who is no longer, in any way, dependent upon him or her, or of whose custody the Government servant has been deprived by law.]

3. General.

(1) Every Government servant shall at all times maintain absolute integrity and devotion to duty.

- (2) Every Government servant shall at all times conduct himself in accordance with the specific or implied orders of Government regulating behaviour and conduct which may be in force.

3A. [Prohibition of sexual harassment of working women. [Inserted by Notification No. 13/V/98-Ka-1-1998, dated 17th October 1998, published in U.P. Gazette, (Extraordinary), Part 4, Section (Kha), dated 17th October, 1998.]

- (1) No Government servant shall indulge in any act of sexual harassment of any woman at her workplace.
- (2) Every Government servant who is in charge of a workplace shall take appropriate steps to prevent sexual harassment to any woman at such workplace.

Explanation. - For the purposes of this rule, "sexual harassment" includes such unwelcome sexually determined behaviour whether directly or otherwise, as-

- (a) physical contact and advances;
- (b) demand or request for sexual favours;
- (c) sexually-coloured remarks;
- (d) showing any pornography; or
- (e) any other unwelcome physical, verbal or non-verbal conduct of sexual nature.]

4. [Equal treatment for all. [Substituted by Notification No. 9/1/75-Karmik-1, dated 28-7-1976.]

- (1) Every Government servant shall accord equal treatment to people irrespective of their caste, sect or religion.
- (2) No Government servant shall practice untouchability in any form].

4A. [Consumption of intoxicating drinks and drugs. [Substituted by Notification No. 9/6/74-Karmik-1, dated 22-2-1978.]

- A Government servant shall-

- (a) strictly abide by any law relating to intoxicating drinks or drugs in force in any area in which he may happen to be for the time being;
- (b) not be under the influence of any intoxicating drink or drug during the course of his duty and shall also take due care that the performance of his duties at any time is not affected in any way by the influence of such drink or drug;
- (c) refrain from consuming any intoxicating drink or drug in a public place;
- (d) not appear in a public place in a state of intoxication;
- (e) not use any intoxicating drink or drug to excess.

Explanation I. - For purposes of this rule 'public place' means any place or premises (including a conveyance) to which the public have, or are permitted to have access, whether on payment or otherwise.

Explanation II. - Any Club-

- (a) which admits persons other than Government servants as members; or
- (b) the members of which are allowed to invite non-members as guests thereto even though the membership is confined to Government servants, shall also, for purposes of Explanation I, be deemed to be a place to which the public have or are permitted to have access.]

5. Taking part in politics and elections.

- (1) No Government servant shall be a member of, or be otherwise associated with, any political party or any organisation which takes part in politics nor shall he take part in, subscribe in aid of, or assist in any other manner, any movement or organisation which is, or tends directly or indirectly to be, subversive of the Government as by law established.

Illustration

X, Y, Z are political parties in the State.

X is the party in power and forms the Government of the day.

A is a Government servant.

The prohibitions of the sub-rule apply to A in respect of all parties, including X, which is the party in power.

- (2) It shall be the duty of every Government servant to endeavour to prevent any member of his family from taking part in, subscribing in aid of, or assisting in any other manner, any movement or activity which is, or tends directly or indirectly to be, subversive of the Government as by law established and where a Government servant fails to prevent a member of his family from taking part in, or subscribing in aid of, or assisting in any other manner, any such movement or activity, he shall make a report to that effect to the Government.

Illustration

A is Government servant.

B is 'member of the family' of A, as defined in Rule 2 (c).

M is a movement or activity which is, or tends directly or indirectly to be, subversive of Government as by law established.

A becomes aware that B's association with M is objectionable under the provisions of the sub-rule. A should prevent such objectionable association of B. If A fails to prevent such association of B, he should report the matter to the Government.

If any question arises whether any movement or activity falls within the scope of this rule, the decision of the Government thereon shall be final.

- (3) [] [Deleted vide Notification No. 2769/II-B-118-54, dated 3-8-1957.].

- (4) No Government servant shall canvass or otherwise interfere or use his influence in connection with, or take part in, an election to any Legislature or local authority :

Provided that-

- (i) a Government servant qualified to vote at such election may exercise his right to vote, but where he does so he shall give no indication of the manner in which he proposes to vote or has voted;
- (ii) a Government servant shall not be deemed to have contravened the provisions of this rule by reason only that he assist in the conduct of an election in the due performance of a duty imposed on him by or under any law for the time being in force.

Explanation. - The display by a Government servant on his person, vehicle or residence, of any electoral symbol shall amount to using his influence in connection with election within the meaning of this sub-rule.
